

FORUM+ | Invitation launch October issue 18.10.2024 at DeSingel

Dear enthusiast of research in the arts,

We want to extend a warm welcome for the launch of the new FORUM+ issue on 18 October 2024 in “Witte Zaal” at DeSingel. In collaboration with ARIA, FORUM+ will present a panel to celebrate this new edition. To stay close to the issue’s contents, we invited several authors to present their contribution:

- + Henny Dörr (HKU University of the Arts) – Author of the editorial “Slowing down” (“Vertragen”)
- + Frederik De Bleser (Sint Lucas Antwerp) – Co-author of “I’m sorry you feel that way”
- + Linde Ex (University of Groningen | Minerva Art Academy) – Author of “How to approach and engage with underwhelming landscapes”
- + Kristof Timmerman (Royal Academy of Fine Arts Antwerp) – Author of “Room for transdisciplinarity” (“Ruimte voor transdisciplinariteit”)
- + Veerle Spronck (HKU University of the Arts) – Author of “Situating, sensitizing, speculating” (“Situeren, sensitiveren, speculeren”)

At noon, you can enjoy a performance and lunch panel organized by the UP - Performance in Perspective research group. The FORUM+ panel will subsequently take place between 2.00 and 3.30 pm. Afterwards, you are invited to stay a while longer for a pleasant chat and raise a glass with us to our new publication.

We very much look forward to this pleasant gathering in October,

The editorial team of FORUM+
