Editorial formula

FORUM+ is both an academic journal and a cultural periodical. It publishes articles and visual essays that stem from original research and are peer-reviewed by the editorial staff and a member of the editorial advisory board with a specific expertise in this field. In addition, FORUM+ contains artistic texts, interviews, reflective essays, in-depth reviews of books, CDs, DVDs, exhibitions, and performances. In this way, FORUM+ provides a platform for the many ways in which research in the arts is expressed and articulated today.

Since 2017, FORUM+ has been partnered with the renowned Amsterdam University Press (AUP) for its publication. AUP has over 20 years of experience in publishing non-fiction books and journals for a wide audience of interested readers and scholars.

Readership

With two main focuses, research on the one hand and the arts on the other, FORUM+ aims at a broad audience of culture enthusiasts, both in Belgium and the Netherlands, as well as internationally: students, researchers, academics, artists and culture lovers. The journal generally addresses readers who received a higher education.
